Name, Objects and Membership

1. The Name of the Common Room shall be Keble College Junior Common Room ("the JCR").
2. The aims and objectives of the JCR shall include:
 - i. the promotion of the academic, financial, welfare, social and general interests of its members.
 - ii. the representation of its members in the affairs of Keble College ("the College").
 - iii. the representation of its members in the affairs of the University of Oxford ("the University") and in other affairs of universal importance to students through the Oxford University Student Union ("Oxford SU") and other relevant organisations.
3. In pursuing these objectives it shall adopt and implement such policies and courses of action as it shall, from time to time, resolve.
4. The Full Members of the JCR ("JCR Members") shall be all undergraduate members of the College who have matriculated and are not recognised by the College as being members of either the Middle Common Room ("MCR") or Senior Common Room ("SCR").
5. All JCR Members shall have the following rights, unless expressly disqualified hereinafter:
 - i. the right to attend, speak and vote at all JCR Meetings.
 - ii. the right to vote at the election of JCR Officers and in Referendums.
 - iii. the right of candidature - any JCR Member may stand for election to a JCR Office, subject to SO 5.11.
 - iv. the right to enjoy the facilities of the JCR and to entertain guests who shall be allowed to use those facilities. JCR Members shall be responsible for their guests.
6. All JCR Members shall have the following duties unless expressly disqualified hereinafter:
 - i. The duty to pay the JCR Levy on battels to cover the cost of punts, Sky and charities.
7. Honorary membership of the JCR may be conferred by a resolution of the JCR as defined in cl 18 of this Constitution.
8. Associate membership of the JCR shall be received automatically by all current full members of the MCR, all undergraduate students and visiting students for the duration of their study at Keble.
9. Honorary and Associate Members may avail themselves only of right (iv) under cl 5 of this Constitution. Visiting Associate Members may in addition avail themselves of rights (i), (ii) and (iii) under cl 5 of this Constitution. Honorary and Associate Membership may be revoked at any time by resolution of the JCR. In any case Associate Membership shall lapse after one year unless renewed.

10. All classes of member shall have the right to complain through the procedures outlined in SOs Section 11.

Anti-Discrimination Policy

11. No member of the JCR shall be discriminated against on the grounds of their race, gender, religion, nationality, colour, sexual orientation, disability, age or belief.

Committee and Officers

12. The JCR Members shall be represented by an elected Committee consisting of the following Officers who shall have such functions, powers and duties as are accorded to them hereafter and in the Standing Orders: President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, Female Welfare Officer, Male Welfare Officer, Accommodation Officer, Charities and Donations Officer, Entertainments Officer, Oxford SU Representative, Environment and Ethics Officer, Academic Affairs and Access Officer, Careers and Alumni Relations Officer, Equal Opportunities Officer, Arts and Publications Officer, Freshers' Week President and Stash Officer. These Officers shall be elected in accordance with the conditions of candidature and election procedure as laid down in SOs Section 5.

13. Except where otherwise stated, reference to a single JCR Officer shall mean both Officers where such a post is held by two or more persons.

14. Any JCR Officer may be removed from office in accordance with the procedure laid down in SO 3.20. Any Officer is free to resign their post at any time.

15. The members of the JCR Committee and those members so mandated by the JCR, shall be the only persons officially representing the JCR.

JCR Meetings

16. There shall be eight Ordinary JCR Meetings each Full term which, unless otherwise agreed by the JCR Committee. These shall take place on Sunday of Weeks 1,2,3,4,5,6,7 and 8 of Full Term in the JCR. The procedure for such Meetings shall be laid down in SOs Section 2.

17. A valid decision of a JCR Meeting shall be a resolution duly proposed and seconded as a Motion and passed. Any reference in this Constitution and Standing Orders to a "majority" shall mean a majority of those present and voting at a JCR Meeting.

18. Valid decisions of JCR Meetings shall be limited to:

- i. mandating a JCR Officer or Member of a Sub-Committee to perform some duty or task that falls within their remit.
- ii. a change in the Constitution or Standing Orders
- iii. a resolution of opinion or policy of the JCR body.
- iv. allocation of monies from JCR accounts to valid causes.
- v. affiliation to an external organisation as provided under cl 62.
- vi. conferring honorary membership.
- vii. revoking a previous resolution of the JCR

19. Decisions under cl 18.v or 18.vi shall lapse one year after the date of the Meeting.

20. The proceedings of any JCR Meeting are only valid in so far as the meeting is quorate according to SO 2.4.
21. JCR Members are at all times expected to respect the right of other members to listen to, and take part in, the discussion at Meetings.
22. The Speaker shall chair all JCR Meetings, subject to SOs 2.1 - 2.4.
23. At the beginning of the next JCR Meeting, if two JCR Members request, the Secretary shall read out the Minutes of the last Meeting, or part of them, for the approval of the JCR.
24. Motions may only be amended strictly in accordance with the procedure in SOs 2.3
25. After two hours of any Meeting, a Special Procedural Motion shall automatically be moved by the Speaker to determine whether the Meeting should continue. The motion shall be resolved by a majority. Should the Meeting continue, the Motion shall subsequently be put at half-hour intervals.
26. Any meeting adjourned with unfinished business must be reconvened at any time before the next meeting is declared open.

Emergency JCR Meetings

27. The President shall call an Emergency Meeting:
 - i. after consultation with the JCR Committee, or
 - ii. if petitioned to do so in writing by at least 35 JCR Members.
28. The time, date and venue of such a Meeting shall be determined by the President in consultation with the Committee or the petitioners and must take place within 72 hours of the decision of the Committee or the presentation of the petition.
29. At least 24 hours notice of such a meeting shall be given in the normal manner.
30. Discussion at such a meeting shall be restricted to the matters for which it has been called which shall be specified in the notice given to Members.
31. In all other respects, the procedure of the Meeting shall be governed by the same provisions as are applicable to an Ordinary JCR Meeting.
32. No Emergency Meeting shall take place outside of Full Term.

Meetings of the JCR Committee

33. The President shall call a Meeting of the JCR Committee:
 - i. on the reasonable request of any Member of the Committee, or
 - ii. whenever the President considers there to be sufficient business in hand to merit the holding of such a Meeting
 - iii. at least once in weeks 1,3,5 and 7.
34. If possible, at least 24 hours notice of the time and place of such a Meeting shall be given to each member of the Committee individually.

35. Such meetings shall be chaired by the President, unless absent, in which case the Vice-President shall assume the Chair.
36. The quorum of such meetings shall be seven Committee Members.
37. The JCR Committee shall have the power to co-opt any JCR Member whose specialised knowledge may be required. Co-opted Members shall not have Committee voting rights.
38. Any JCR Member may request a copy of the minutes of the JCR Committee Meeting. Certain sections of the Minutes may be withheld on the ruling of the President.
39. A ruling of the Chair at a Committee Meeting can be overturned only by a vote of a majority of the JCR Committee. The Chair shall have a casting vote.
40. A valid decision of the JCR Committee can be reached (if necessary) by a simple majority vote of those present.

Representation on College Committees

41. The JCR seeks to participate in the administration of College affairs by being fully represented on any College Committee which discusses matters concerning junior members. The officers representing the JCR on each college committee is laid out in the Standing orders.

Elections

42. The election of all JCR Officers shall be by secret ballot which shall be conducted as prescribed in SOs Section 5.
43. Timing of Elections:
 - i. Annual Elections for the posts of Vice-President, Secretary, Entertainments Officer, and Environment & Ethics Officer shall take place in the 6th Week of Michaelmas Term.
 - ii. Annual Elections for the post of Speaker, Freshers' Week President, Stash Officer, Equal Opportunities Officer + Careers and Alumni Relations Officer shall take place in the 2nd week of Hilary Term.

 - v. Annual Elections for Treasurer, Oxford SU Representative, Academic Affairs and Access Officer, Accommodation Officer, Charities and Donations Officer and Arts and Publications Officer shall take place in the 4th Week of Trinity Term.
44. All posts are tenable for one year. Tenure begins on the last day of the full term in which the election was held with the exception of the Female and Male Welfare Officers, whose terms of office shall begin on the last day of Trinity Term.
45. With the exception of the Female and Male Welfare Officers, from the time of their election, newly elected officers shall sit on the JCR Committee as officers elect and shall participate fully in JCR Committee business. The Female and Male Welfare Officers elect shall begin such duties only after the Trinity Term elections.
46. No Election shall take place outside of Full Term.

By-Elections and Officer Vacancy

47. In the event of a JCR Office becoming vacant, a By-Election shall be held in accordance with the rules laid down in SO 5.10.
48. The By-Election shall be held as soon as possible after the vacancy occurs. The Member so elected shall take office from the time the result is announced and so shall complete the unfinished term of office.
49. The whole procedure leading to the election of a new Officer shall be carried out within three weeks (excluding dates outside full term) of the vacancy arising, save that if the vacancy occurs during the term in which the Election of that Officer falls due, the Committee may allow the post to remain vacant until the Annual Elections.
50. In the interim period between the vacancy occurring and a new officer being elected, the JCR Committee shall co-opt a JCR member temporarily to the post or appoint an existing JCR Officer to take over the duties of the vacant Office.
51. In the event of one position in a JCR Office occupied by multiple individuals becoming vacant, the remaining member(s) of the JCR Office shall advertise the vacancy to the JCR for seven days and accept applications for the position. The remaining member(s) shall then review the applications, decide which applicant is most qualified and then bring their decision to the next JCR Meeting, where it shall be ratified by a majority vote. The members shall then serve out the remainder of the term for which the JCR Office was elected to serve.
52. No By-Election shall take place outside of Full Term.

Referendums

53. A Referendum shall be called by the President:
 - i. if the JCR so resolves by a two thirds majority at a quorate Ordinary or Emergency Meeting.
 - ii. if the JCR Committee unanimously so decides.
 - iii. if petitioned to do so by at least 50 JCR Members.
54. Such Referendums shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure laid down in SOs Section 7.
55. Such Referendums shall be preceded by a Referendum Meeting at which the Referendum Motion shall be debated, but not resolved. The result of the Referendum shall be the supreme resolution of the JCR on that matter, reversible only by a subsequent referendum. Resolutions by referendum not reversed in this manner shall lapse three years after the declaration of the result of the referendum, unless the referendum concerns the ratification of changes to the Constitution or Standing Orders.
56. No Referendum shall take place outside of Full Term.

Sub-Committees of the JCR

57. The membership, business and finances of all Sub-Committees shall be governed by the provisions of SOs Section 9.
58. All Sub-Committees must be ratified at the first available opportunity by resolution of the JCR. This resolution shall determine their objectives.

External Affairs

59. The JCR shall be affiliated to Oxford SU and pay all appropriate fees.
60. Representation on Oxford SU Council shall be through the Oxford SU Representative, the President and a third vote to be allocated on a first come first serve basis.
61. JCR Officers shall attend all relevant meetings of Oxford SU and its Committees.
62. The JCR may also affiliate to any other external organisation, providing that the organisation is neither illegal nor has overtly political objects..

MCR Relations

63. The JCR Committee shall liaise with the MCR.
64. The appropriate JCR Officers and Sub-Committees shall seek to adopt a common policy with the MCR in prices and charges negotiations in Trinity Term.

Finance

65. The finance of the JCR shall be administered by the Treasurer in close conjunction with the President and in accordance with their duties as officers and Section 11 of the Standing Orders.

Amendment

66. Constitutional amendments may only be made after a resolution to that effect has been passed:
 - i. unanimously by those present and voting at a single JCR Meeting, or
 - ii. by an 80% majority at two consecutive Meetings, or
 - iii. by Referendum.
67. All such resolved Constitutional Amendments are subject to ratification by the Governing Body of the College, but shall take effect provisionally from the time they are resolved by the JCR, pending ratification.

68. The Constitution and Standing Orders shall be presented to the Governing Body of the College for ratification every five years.
69. Standing Orders shall be amended only after a resolution to that effect has been passed by a two thirds majority at a single JCR Meeting.
70. New or amended Standing Orders shall have immediate effect.

Interpretation

71. Outside JCR Meetings the President, in consultation with the Secretary, shall be the sole interpreter of the Constitution and Standing Orders.
72. During any JCR Meeting the Speaker, in consultation with the Secretary, shall be the sole interpreter of the Constitution and Standing Orders, provided that the Speaker's interpretation does not come into conflict with the President's interpretation. If a conflict does arise, the President's interpretation is final.

Definitions and Abbreviations

73. Previous resolutions of the JCR shall not be invalidated by this Constitution except in so far as they are not inconsistent with its express provisions, in which case such resolutions are immediately superseded.
74. All previous Constitutions of the Keble College Junior Common Room are hereby revoked.

Coda

This Constitution and the associated Standing Orders shall come into effect from the 1st week of Trinity Term 2018.
