CONSTITUTION

Name, Objects and Membership

- 1. The Name of the Common Room shall be Keble College Junior Common Room ("the JCR").
- 2. The aims and objectives of the JCR shall include:
  - i. the promotion of the academic, financial, welfare, social and general interests of its members;
  - ii the representation of its members in the affairs of Keble College ("the College");
  - ii. the representation of its members in the affairs of the University of Oxford ("the University") and in other affairs of universal importance to students through the Oxford University Student Union ("Oxford SU") and other relevant organisations.
- 3. In pursuing these objectives it shall adopt and implement such policies and courses of action as it shall, from time to time, resolve.
- 4. The Full Members of the JCR ("JCR Members") shall be all undergraduate members of the College who have matriculated and are not recognised by the College as being members of either the Middle Common Room ("MCR") or Senior Common Room ("SCR"), as well as all individuals currently enrolled on a foundation year course at the College.
- 5. All JCR Members shall have the following rights, unless expressly disqualified hereinafter:
  - i the right to attend, speak and vote at all JCR Meetings;
  - ii. the right to propose or second Motions (as defined in SO 1);
  - iii. the right to vote at the election of JCR Officers and in Referendums;
  - iv. the right of candidature any JCR Member may stand for election to a JCR Office, subject to SO 5.9;

v. the right to enjoy the facilities of the JCR, subject to the observance of the JCR Rules, and to entertain guests who shall be allowed to use those facilities. JCR Members shall be responsible for their guests.

- 6. All JCR Members shall pay the JCR Levy on battels to cover the cost of punts, Sky and charities so long as this is reasonably within their financial means.
- 7. Honorary Membership of the JCR may be conferred by a resolution of the JCR as defined in cl 18 of this Constitution. Honorary Members may not avail themselves of any rights under cl 5 of this Constitution.
- 8. Associate Membership shall be conferred upon visiting undergraduate students for the duration of their study at Keble. Associate Members may avail themselves of rights (i) (excluding Constitutional Reform motions as defined in SO 1), (ii) (excluding Constitutional Reform motions), and (v) under cl 5 of this Constitution.
- 9. Honorary and Associate Membership may be revoked at any time by resolution of the JCR. In any case Associate Membership shall lapse upon the cessation of studies at Keble.
- 10. Full and Associate Members shall have the right to complain through the procedures outlined in SOs Section 11.

Anti-Discrimination Policy

11. No member of the JCR shall be discriminated against on the grounds of their age, disability, gender, marital status or civil partnership, nationality, pregnancy or maternity, religion or faith, sex, or sexual orientation.

Committee and Officers

12. The JCR Members shall be represented by an elected Committee consisting of the following Officers who shall have such functions, powers and duties as are accorded to them hereafter and in the Standing Orders: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Access Officer, Accommodation Officer, Arts and Publications Officer, Charities and Donations Officer, Entertainments Officer, Environment and Ethics Officer, Equal Opportunities Officer, First Year Affairs Officer, and Welfare Officer. These Officers shall be elected in accordance with the conditions of candidature and election procedure as laid down in SOs Section 5. The Executive Committee of the JCR shall comprise the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary.

- 13. Except where otherwise stated, reference to a single JCR Officer shall mean both or all Officers where such a post is held by two or more persons.
- 14. Any JCR Officer may be removed from office in accordance with the procedures laid down in SO 1.3. Any Officer is free to resign their post at any time by writing to the President.
- 15. The members of the JCR Committee, holders of Non-Committee Posts (as outlined in SO 4), and those members so mandated by the JCR Committee, shall be the only persons officially representing the JCR.

JCR Meetings

- 16. There shall be eight Ordinary JCR Meetings each Full term, unless otherwise agreed by the JCR Committee. These shall take place on Sunday of each week of Full Term in the JCR. The procedure for such Meetings shall be laid down in SOs Section 2.
- 17. A valid decision of a JCR Meeting shall be a resolution duly proposed and seconded as a Motion and passed. Any reference in this Constitution and Standing Orders to a "majority" shall mean more than 50 percent of those present and voting at a JCR Meeting.
- 18. Valid decisions of JCR Meetings shall be limited to:
  - i mandating a JCR Officer or Member of a Sub-Committee to perform some duty or task that may reasonably be part of their role;
  - ii. a change in the Constitution or Standing Orders;
  - ii. a resolution of opinion or policy of the JCR body;
  - iv. allocation of monies from JCR accounts to valid causes;
  - v. affiliation to an external organisation as provided under cl 58;
  - vi conferring Honorary Membership;
  - vii. revoking a previous resolution of the JCR.
- 19. JCR Members are at all times expected to respect the right of other members to listen to, and take part in, the discussion at Meetings.
- 20. The Speaker shall chair all JCR Meetings, subject to SO 2.
- 21. At the beginning of a JCR Meeting, if two JCR Members request, the Secretary shall read out all or part of the Minutes of the last Meeting.
- 22. After two hours of any Meeting, a Special Procedural Motion shall automatically be moved by the Speaker to determine whether the Meeting should continue. The motion shall be resolved by a majority. Should the Meeting continue, the Motion shall subsequently be put at half-hour intervals.
- 23. Any meeting adjourned with unfinished business must be reconvened at any time before the next meeting is declared open. If there is a disagreement as to whether business is unfinished, the Speaker shall decide.

Emergency JCR Meetings

- 24. The President shall call an Emergency Meeting:
  - i after consultation with the Executive Committee, or
  - ii. if petitioned to do so in writing by at least 35 JCR Members.
- 25. The time, date and venue of such a Meeting shall be determined by the President in consultation with the Executive Committee or the petitioners and must take place within 72 hours of the decision of the President or the presentation of the petition.
- 26. At least 24 hours' notice of such a meeting shall be given in the normal manner.

- 27. Discussion at such a meeting shall be restricted to the matters for which it has been called which shall be specified in the notice given to Members.
- 28. In all other respects, the procedure of the Meeting shall be governed by the same provisions as are applicable to an Ordinary JCR Meeting.
- 29. No Emergency Meeting shall take place outside of Full Term.

Meetings of the JCR Committee

- 30. The President shall call a Meeting of the JCR Committee:
  - i on the reasonable request of any Member of the Committee, or
  - ii. whenever the President considers there to be sufficient business in hand to merit the holding of such a Meeting;
  - iii. at least twice in each term.
- 31. If possible, at least 24 hours' notice of the time and place of such a Meeting shall be given to all Committee Members.
- 32. All Officers shall attend all Meetings of the JCR Committee.
- 33. Such meetings shall be chaired by the President, unless absent, in which case the Vice President shall assume the Chair.
- 34. The quorum of such meetings shall be 40 percent of the Committee.
- 35. The JCR Committee shall have the power to co-opt any JCR Member whose specialised knowledge may be required. Co-opted Members shall not have Committee voting rights.
- 36. Any JCR Member may request a copy of the minutes of the JCR Committee Meeting. Certain sections of the Minutes may be withheld on the ruling of the President.
- 37. A ruling of the Chair at a Committee Meeting can be overturned only by a vote of a majority of the JCR Committee. The Chair shall have a casting vote.
- 38. A valid decision of the JCR Committee can be reached (if necessary) by a majority vote of those present.

Representation on College Committees

39. The JCR seeks to participate in the administration of College affairs by being fully represented on any College Committee which discusses matters concerning junior members. The Officers representing the JCR on each College committee are laid out in the Standing Orders.

Elections

40. The election of all JCR Officers shall be by secret ballot which shall be conducted as prescribed in SO 5.

41. Timing of Elections:

- i annual Elections for the posts of Vice President, Secretary, Environment & Ethics Officer and First Year Affairs Officer shall take place in the 6th Week of Michaelmas Term;
- ii annual Elections for the post of Welfare Officer shall take place in the 6th Week of Hilary Term;
- iii. the Annual Election for the post of President shall take place in the  $2^{nd}$  week of Trinity Term;
- iv. annual Elections for Treasurer, Access Officer, Accommodation Officer, Charities and Donations Officer, Equal Opportunities Officer, Entertainments Officer, and Arts and Publications Officer shall take place between the 4th and 8th Weeks of Trinity Term.

- 42. All posts are tenable for one year from the day on which they were scheduled to be elected, with the exception of First Year Affairs Officer. Tenure begins on the last day of the full term in which the election was held with the exception of the Welfare Officers, whose term of office shall begin on the last day of Week 8 of Trinity Term. The First Year Affairs Officer post is tenable from the date of election until the first day of Michaelmas Term.
- 43. With the exception of the Welfare Officers, from the time of their election, newly elected Officers shall be considered Officers-Elect. Successful candidates for Welfare Officer shall be considered Officers-Elect only after the Trinity Term elections have taken place. Officers-Elect shall be included in JCR business as far as practicable. It is the responsibility of the incumbent Officer to ensure that the Officer-Elect receives communications from the rest of the committee and is in a suitable position to take up their post. This should include a handover document detailing responsibilities and other important information. Officers-Elect shall attend JCR Meetings and JCR Committee meetings when possible, although they shall be considered non-Committee members until their tenure begins.
- 44. No Election shall take place outside of Full Term.

By-Elections and Officer Vacancy

- 45. In the event of a JCR Office becoming vacant, a By-Election shall be held in accordance with the rules laid down in SO 5.
- 46. The By-Election shall be held as soon as possible after the vacancy occurs. The Member so elected shall take office from the time the result is announced and so shall complete the unfinished term of office.
- 47. In the interim period between the vacancy occurring and a new Officer being elected, the JCR Committee may co-opt a willing JCR member temporarily to the post or appoint an existing JCR Officer willing to take over the duties of the vacant Office.
- 48. No By-Election shall take place outside of Full Term.

Referendums

- 49. A Referendum shall be called by the President:
  - i if the JCR so resolves by a two thirds supermajority at a quorate Ordinary or Emergency Meeting;
  - ii. if the JCR Committee unanimously so decides;
  - iii. if petitioned to do so by at least 50 JCR Members.
- 50. Such Referendums shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure laid down in SO 7.
- 51. Such Referendums shall be preceded by a Referendum Meeting at which the Referendum Motion shall be debated, but not resolved. The result of the Referendum shall be the supreme resolution of the JCR on that matter, reversible only by a subsequent referendum. Resolutions by referendum not reversed in this manner shall lapse three years after the declaration of the result of the referendum, unless the referendum concerns the ratification of changes to the Constitution or Standing Orders.
- 52. No Referendum shall take place outside of Full Term.

Sub-Committees of the JCR

- 53. The membership, business and finances of all Sub-Committees shall be governed by the provisions of SO 9.
- 54. All Sub-Committees must be ratified at the first available opportunity by resolution of the JCR. This resolution shall determine their objectives.

External Affairs

- 55. The JCR shall be affiliated to Oxford SU and pay all appropriate fees.
- 56. The President shall represent the JCR in the Conference of Common Rooms.
- 57. JCR Officers shall attend all relevant meetings organised by Oxford SU.
- 58. The JCR may also affiliate to any other external organisation, providing that the organisation is neither illegal nor has overtly political objects.

MCR Relations

- 59. The JCR Committee shall liaise with the MCR Committee.
- 60. The appropriate JCR Officers shall seek to adopt a common policy with the MCR in prices and charges negotiations in Hilary Term.

Finance

61. The finance of the JCR shall be administered by the Treasurer in close conjunction with the President and in accordance with their duties as Officers and Section 10 of the Standing Orders.

Amendment

- 62. Constitutional amendments may only be made after a resolution to that effect has been passed:
  - i. by an 80% supermajority at a single Meeting with an enhanced quorum of 35 Members, or
    - ii. by a two-thirds supermajority in a Referendum.
- 63. All such resolved Constitutional Amendments are subject to ratification by the Governing Body of the College, but shall take effect provisionally from the time they are resolved by the JCR, pending ratification.
- 64. The Constitution and Standing Orders shall be presented to the Governing Body of the College for ratification every five years.
- 65. Standing Orders shall be amended only after a resolution to that effect has been passed by a two thirds supermajority at a single JCR Meeting.
- 66. New or amended Standing Orders shall have immediate effect.

Interpretation

- 67. Outside JCR Meetings the President, in consultation with the Secretary, shall interpret the Constitution and Standing Orders.
- 68. During any JCR meeting, the Speaker, in consultation with the Secretary, shall interpret the Constitution and Standing Orders. The Speaker's interpretation shall stand provided that it does not come into conflict with an interpretation agreed upon by both the President and the Secretary, in which case the Speaker may be overruled.
- 69. Previous resolutions of the JCR shall not be invalidated by this Constitution except in so far as they are not consistent with its express provisions, in which case such resolutions are immediately superseded.
- 70. All previous Constitutions of the Keble College Junior Common Room are hereby revoked.

Coda

This Constitution shall come into effect from the 1st week of Trinity Term 2025.

STANDING ORDERS

1. Submitting of Motions

- 1. There are 6 types of motion that may be submitted to the JCR for consideration:
  - i. Ordinary motions;
  - ii. Constitutional Reform motions;
  - iii. Charities motions;
  - iv. Drama motions;
  - v. Emergency motions;
  - vi. No Confidence motions.

2. All motions should be submitted to the JCR Secretary, in writing, with the names of the proposer and seconder, by 5pm on the Friday before the meeting.

- 3. A No Confidence motion requiring the immediate resignation of the JCR Officer concerned may be moved providing that this motion is handed to the Secretary at least 72 hours in advance of the next JCR Meeting. At the Meeting, the Chair will ask for a speech in proposition followed by one in opposition. The Officer concerned shall be entitled to speak in their defence. The Chair will ensure that all speeches and questions are focused directly on the Motion. The Motion will be deemed passed if two-thirds of those present are in favour.
- 4. Constitutional Reform motions shall be subject to cl 62 of this Constitution.
- 5. Charities and Drama motions are identical to ordinary motions, except they shall be seconded by their respective Officer/Rep with their consent and the funds will come from their respective budgets.

6. Emergency motions are motions that have been submitted after the normal deadline and need to be passed at the upcoming JCR meeting, both for valid reasons. The JCR Secretary, in consultation with the President, shall decide whether or not to admit such motions.

7. The JCR Secretary shall include all valid motions in the Agenda, which shall be sent out via the JCR mailing list at least 24 hours before the meeting.

8. Motions exceeding £200 (excluding charity motions) are subject to SO 10.5.

9. Motions exceeding £50 that would appropriate from the general motions budget are subject to SO 10.9.

2. JCR Meetings Procedure

- 1. All JCR meetings shall be chaired by an elected JCR member, "The Speaker".
  - i. in the absence of the Speaker, the meeting shall be chaired by a JCR Committee member;
  - ii. the Speaker shall act as a neutral chair and shall not participate in the debate.
- 2. The Order of Business at JCR meetings shall be:
  - i. Officer Reports;
  - ii. motions;
  - iii. hustings;
  - iv. matters for discussion;
  - v. any other business.

3. The procedure for debating and voting on motions shall be:

- i. The proposer or the seconder shall summarise the motion out loud;
- ii. if neither the proposer nor the seconder is present, the motion shall be deferred until the next meeting, except at the discretion of the Speaker where a reason for their absence and a summary argument in favour of the motion has been communicated in advance to the Secretary, in which case the speaker shall read the summary of the motion out loud;

- iii. if requested by a member of the quorum, the JCR will debate the motion. This includes questions, speeches in proposition or opposition and simple amendments. The Speaker shall then call for a vote;
- iv. in the case of no debate, the Speaker shall immediately call for a vote;
- v. voting shall be conducted by secret ballot. This shall be overseen by the Secretary and Speaker who shall be responsible for the provision of the voting system, with the support of the IT Rep and on the approval of the JCR Committee.
- 4. Quorum is set at 25 JCR Members. To be passed, a motion (except Constitutional Reform motions, which are - subject to cl 63 of this Constitution) shall require a majority (as defined in cl 18 of this Constitution).i. When voting, votes for, votes against and abstentions all count towards quorum;
  - ii. if quorum is not present, the Speaker shall have discretion to delay a vote until later in the meeting, else all motions shall be postponed until the following meeting;
  - iii. at least 5 members of quorum must not be current JCR Officers or Representatives.

3. Duties and Functions of the Committee and Officers
